1108 Lavaca, Suite 110-324 * Austin, Texas 78701

Dear Members:

I am a polite, professional person and I expect my subscribers also to be. I DO want you to have satisfaction for your money. Because there are so many people who use the Internet to be anonymously rude and ugly, I have published the following Refund Policy to level the playing field so that extremely horrid people don't get advantages that nice people would never think to ask for.

*Thank you,
Christine*

REFUND POLICY:

You may cancel your subscription at any time without being obligated to future charges. A convenient “unsubscribe” button is provided on my JOIN and HELP pages. This takes you to the right spot on PayPal for canceling or suspending the recurring fee cycle that keeps your membership current.

Cancel here: <http://www.christineslist.org/join>

Members are expected to take personal responsibility for managing their subscriptions, according to their own inclinations for starting and stopping their fee cycles.

On PayPal, Cancel means you want to stop the fee cycle and eliminate the membership such that signing up at a later date will require starting over again with a different email address. Suspend means you want to keep the membership for future use, but stop processing the fees until a later time.

Refunds are awarded at my discretion. I refund fees for dissatisfaction, or if the subscription was initiated in error. Refunds are not typically awarded just because you forgot to cancel your fee cycle.

In addition, if your sign-up date is more than 7 days prior to your request for a refund, a refund will not typically be awarded because there exists a presumption that you have “consumed” my intellectual product in that time period.

If you experience trouble accessing the site after signing up and paying, please contact me immediately by emailing Christine@christineslist.org.

Some older versions of Explorer do not work well with my upgraded site. If you cannot log in even though your membership is up-to-date, try accessing the site using a newer version of Explorer, or switch to using Firefox, Chrome, Safari, etc. Christine’s List is not liable for access issues you may experience due to outdated software or hardware on your end, including outdated browser software.

Please email Christine@christineslist.org if you feel you deserve a refund. I’m reasonable and will work with you.
